SPECIAL INFORMATION

Disability Assistance: If you feel that you may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability, you should contact me privately to discuss your specific needs. Also, please contact Disability Support Services (864-8753) or Educational Diagnostic Center (864-8839) for information or questions about eligibility, services and accommodations for physical (DSS), psychological (DSS) or learning (EDC) disabilities.

Academic Dishonesty : Academic dishonesty, in all of its forms, including plagiarism, is not tolerated. Students found responsible for violating this rule may be given a failing grade in the specific course and are subject to further disciplinary action. Specifically, students who are caught cheating will be given a zero score on the quiz or exam in question. A repeat incident will result in expulsion.

Disruptive Behavior: Students are required to respect classroom activities and show common courtesy to both instructor and peers. Behavior such as excessive discussion between classmates on content which is unrelated to course materials will not be tolerated. It is the instructor's discretion to determine what disruptive behavior is and request appropriate remedy which may result in student's expulsion from the class.

Please turn your cell phone ring into vibration mode.

Students' Responsibility : Students should behave as educated adults. You should try to understand your strengths and weaknesses so that you can maximize your learning potential. Since the pace of the class may be quite fast at times, you should ask for assistance as soon as you realize that you are falling behind. Instructor is always available for help or advice.

Plan early so that you have more options !

The instructor may make changes in the syllabus during the semester. It is the student's responsibility to stay informed of these changes. Students may contact the instructor during office hours and before/after class, time permitting. Students may also wish to have a study partner whom they can contact if they miss class.
